And the afternoon
ended on the bright
side for New Ulm
and a little gloomy
for a poised and
talented Red Roses
bunch from Roseville...seems they came from the longest distance and always played the last game.

This time New Ulm jumped out early and got super starting pitching from Ben Wolf who shut Rosemount down for four innings, retiring 10 of 11 batters during that stretch. Three errors and a couple of stolen bases with hits by Collin Clyne and Erich Prokosch scored a pair. Two walks, stolen base and wild pitch set up a score in the third on a ground out and opened the flood gates in the fourth. Then New Ulm had three stolen bases, a walk and a hit batsman plus singles by Clyne, Tim Kehren, Connor Stark and Dylan Schreckenberg for the scores. Rosemount's first run came in the fourth when Trevor Kolden went deep to centerfield and raced around to score on a throwing area from the cut-off. One more came in the sixth on three straight hits: singles by Mathew Wells, Zachary Zaboj and a double by Morris Valenzuela. Clyne and designated hitter Prokosch had a pair of hits. Prokosch got on base four straight times and scored twice; also doubling in the sixth. Wells had a double and single for Rosemount.
